

I urge you not to remove regulations on broadcast ownership. Loosening the rules to allow further media consolidation would cut down on the airing of diverse points of view. This would be detrimental to the public interest.